Woodcock-Johnson IV
for Special Education Teachers:
Best Practices to Make it Painless and Useful

This session is for special education teachers who administer the Woodcock-Johnson for special education evaluations. Topics include: optimizing testing time, understanding scores and explaining them to parents, and using results to plan classroom instruction and interventions. The session will focus on the WJ IV Tests of Achievement, including administration guidelines and score interpretation, and will introduce the WJ IV Tests of Oral Language, including OL battery structure and uses, role of the OL battery in reading disability/dyslexia assessment, and methods of determining Spanish/English language dominance.
