PARENTS HELPING PARENTS

OF SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY

SERVING FAMILIES
OF CHILDREN
WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

A FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

WHAT IS PHP?

Parents Helping Parents (PHP) of San Luis Obispo County is organized by parents of children with special needs.

We focus on families of children from birth to adulthood who may have developmental or learning-related issues.

If your child has a disability or a delay, you may feel anxious and lonely. Family, friends and professionals offer help and support, but our parents can honestly say,

“WE’VE BEEN THERE!”

Through our Parent-to-Parent Network we can introduce you to other parents who share similar interests and experiences.

Our services and support programs are FREE for all families seeking information and support.

As parents of special needs children, we can also help you work with agencies, professionals and schools.

The result? Effective sharing of important information that can benefit your entire family.
